COMMITTED TO WORKERS. FOCUSED ON RESULTS.

This month, we're highlighting the real impact our work has on the people and families who rely on us when the unexpected happens. At Stern & Cohen, every win is more than a number—it's stability, relief, and a path forward for someone whose life was changed by a work injury.

From breaking down common workers' comp questions to securing meaningful settlements across PA, our team remains committed to guiding injured workers with proven results. We're proud to stand up for those who deserve fair treatment, proper medical care, and the financial support they need to move forward toward recovery.

Every client story matters. Every victory creates change. And every month, we are honored to share these results with you.

DAVE STERN BREAKS DOWN WORKERS' COMP COSTS

David Stern shares what every injured worker should know about hiring a workers' compensation attorney.

With Stern & Cohen, you don't pay a dime unless we secure a win. We focus on helping clients navigate the process, answer their questions, and advocate for the compensation they deserve.

SUCCESSFUL OUTCOME LED BY KATY LUCHANSKY

A delivery driver was injured on the job when he slipped on ice, suffering a significant back injury. Attorney Katy Luchansky stepped in to ensure he received the support he needed while handling workers' compensation and the challenges of being temporarily out of work.

Katy worked to secure a settlement that provides financial stability during his recovery, allowing him to focus on healing and caring for his family without added stress.

At Stern & Cohen, we are committed to advocating for injured workers across Pennsylvania. Every case matters, and we fight to help hardworking individuals get the compensation, guidance, and peace of mind they deserve.

Think you have to sue your employer to get workers' compensation? You don't. Workers' comp is an insurance claim, not a lawsuit.

Our attorneys guide injured workers through the process, helping you understand your rights and get the benefits you need—without unnecessary stress or conflict.

No matter your industry or role, we handle the details, advocate for your claim, and give you the support you need to focus on what matters most, your recovery.
